The Guiteau Trial.

Washington, November 21.—The crowd about the court house this morning was three times greater than Saturday, and with the greatest difficulty those entitled to admission could force their way through the corridors to the criminal court room. The opening of the trial was delayed some moments in consequence.

Guiteau arrived in the van at 9 o'clock having an escort of three mounted police in addition to two officers on the van. He was taken to his room, where he breakfasted and read the morning papers. He seemed to have recovered entirely from his scare. He attributed his escape last Saturday to the

INTERPOSITION OF THE DEITY.

And desired his hearers to understand that he was not afraid to die if he desired it, but did not like to be shot down like a dog before he had time to fully vindicate his conduct in a court of justice. Upon being brought into court Guiteau at once devoted himself to his papers and contrary to general expectation, made no demonstration whatever allusions to the late attempt upon his life.

ROBINSON WITHDRAWS FROM THE CASE.

Immediately upon the opening of court, Robinson arose and addressed the court for the purpose of calling attention to an article in the Sunday Post, in which Seville was made to say he should request the withdrawal of Robinson from the case, as he (Seville) had become satisfied that Robinson could be of no assistance to the defense. Robinson criticised in severe terms the discourtesy he had received by Guiteau, who broke in with:

"Your honor, I want Robinson to stay in."

Continuing, Robinson requested the court to grant his discharge from the case and positively stated that he could not, with proper self-respect remain in association with Seville.

Guiteau, who had been closely following Robinson all through the latter portion of his speech, broke in again and with considerable warmth said: "I am an able speaker and I agree with most of it. If he had only said it last Monday there would never have been any disturbance between us."

Seville tried to quiet Guiteau, when he retorted upon him, "Keep quiet yourself, I'm talking now. I sympathize with him in this matter."

Seville made a brief statement deploring the disagreement, after which Judge Cox retired and the consulting physician to all the city insane asylum. He says Guiteau belongs to a larger class of persons than most people suspect existence of. He is a subject of insane neurosis or insane temperament. Old books teach condition known to the fault of the so-called patient, though course there is a hereditary form from nervous ancestors. This matter of insane neurosis is one of a wide bearing which deserves more attention from physicians and from fathers, than it has received. It manifests itself in different ways. In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, it leads people to nothing more than harmless eccentricities, or hypochondria, and frequently is never noticed at all unless by some one interested in such matters. The importance of recognizing the gravity of the subject is opportune but the recognition of insane neurosis is no new thing. Maudsley gives it prominence and in his work on "The Nervous System" he gives evidence on a large number of persons.

How the House is Made Up.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Since the election in New York it has been claimed that there were 147 straight Republican members in the next House, notwithstanding the fact that the House of Representatives of Astor, by the officers of the House and of those who are entitled to draw pay only Collins, there are 146 straight Republicans, or one short of a majority over the Democrats.

California 2, Colorado 1, Connecticut 3, Michigan 9, New Jersey 4, Oregon 1, Vermont 3, Illinois 13, Indiana 8, Iowa 9, Minnesota 3, New York 19, Pennsylvania 18, Virginia 2, Kansas 3, Kentucky 1, Louisiana 1, Nebraska 1, North Carolina 1, Rhode Island 2, Wisconsin 6, Maine 3, Maryland 1, Massachusetts 10, New Hampshire 3, Ohio 15, Tennessee 3. This is the list of Republicans as they will be recognized at the opening of the House in Washington.

The project of attempting a coalition between Democrats and Greenbackers to secure the organization it seems has been abandoned. Only thirty-four members of the House are in Washington and of them only twenty are Republicans. Of the twenty Republicans eight are candidates for Speaker, so it is evident that not much progress is yet made in the canvass. All the candidates talk hopefully, but the truth is none can give any estimate of the votes they will get outside their respective States.

Star Route Stuff.

New York, Nov. 21.—The Sun prints the following special:

The most flagrant of all the failures of the star route prosecutors to do their duty is found in the case upon which the so-called information was based.

Corruption and fraud were stamped upon the face of the Walsh contract. Brady, Walsh and others concerned in the matter were arrested and themselves.

MacVeagh's agents wanted to use Walsh as a witness and how did they go about it? While Brady was in office he issued an order, March 24th, 1881, curtailing 150 miles of service on the route of this contract and deducting $28,005.43 per annum from the pay pro rata on account of railroad extension.

He also reserved a quarter of one month extra pay for future consideration upon the ground that the contractor had failed on the remainder of the route.

Brady issued another order of April 16th, 1881, directing that the pay of Walsh for the quarter ending March 31, 1881, be suspended. Brady went out of office leaving Walsh unpaid for the quarter for having failed to perform the contract. No matter what matters may have governed those acts they were official and they stand upon record.

Now MacVeagh drew affidavits which charged the Walsh contract to be fraudulent and corrupt, as it undoubtedly was. In the face of this sworn declaration, James, on the 11th of June, 1881, removed the suspension of Walsh's pay, ordered by Brady, and three days later he ordered Walsh to be paid $15,024.36 on this failed and fraudulent job.

On the 1st of July, 1881, James made a further order releasing Walsh from all claims and forfeitures and to proceed on contract as follows: Affidavits of the contractors of June 15th and 30th, 1881, herewith, and report and recommendation thereon by A. ## Fleeing the Wrath to Come.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—Tucker B. Osborne, of Independence, Missouri, who was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary for the Glendale train robbery and pardoned as a witness for the State against Bill Ryan, who was recently tried and convicted for the same offense. However, he has left the country in a mysterious manner and his whereabouts are unknown. His testimony convicted Ryan and gave the entire gang away. Before the trial he was threatened with death and during the trial his dwelling house was set on fire and an attack would have been made on him had he not been closely guarded. Since the trial he has received threatening letters; some signed "Jesse" and some "Ed"—supposed to mean Jesse James, Ed. Miller and others of the boys. Basham has been very excited for weeks and the letters frightened him so he concluded his only hope of escaping their vengeance was to fly secretly. He took his wife and left the property, and even his father does not know where he has gone. The best posted are firmly of the opinion that the letters were written for the purpose of making Basham leave Independence and believe the train robbers will now find out his whereabouts and get even with him for betrayal of them. The State expected to use Basham as a witness against the parties indicted for the Blue cut train robbery and his evidence was important.

Dance of Death.

Portsmouth, O., Nov. 21.—The sad ending of a wedding feast is the latest sensation of Greenup county, Kentucky. Allen Richards, on Wednesday night, was married to Mrs. Ellen Burke, a widow, at her residence. The parties being of prominence in the neighborhood, an extensive celebration of the nuptials was being had, when Samuel Burke, a son of the bride, got into an altercation with his step-father. The wedding was broken up in consequence. Several shots were fired. Young Burke was shot in the breast, and is not expected to live, and the newly married couple have separated.

Murderous Burglars.

Cincinnati, November 21.—The residence of Mrs. Julia Smith, No. 26 Perry street, was entered by two burglars this evening by way of the roof, and were discovered by Mrs. Smith. One of them made an assault upon her with a butcher-knife; but both of the men escaped. One of them, Wm. Martin, alias Flanagan, a well-known thief, 18 years old, ran into 28 Perry street, where he was captured by an officer and locked up on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Flanagan was released from the work house only a few days ago.

Murdered and Robbed.

Evansville, Ind., November 21.—Wm. Hesle, a widower, was found dead this morning, his head crushed and bloody. The house had evidently been plundered. The murderer left some of his clothes; which seemed to be those of a tramp, in the neighborhood yesterday. He was a young German of about nineteen.

A Peculiar Outrage.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 21.—J. B. White, of Laveria, is in the city. He says that while going home from our fair several days ago four unknown men rushed upon him unawares, bound him to a tree and robbed him of something over $100. He was liberated next day by parties passing on the road.

Bill Jones Bagged.

Washington, Nov. 21.—William Jones was brought before the police court this morning for assault with intent to kill Charles J. Guiteau. He was detained but a few moments and in default of $5,000 bail was committed to jail and the case indefinitely postponed.

Fifteen and a Suite.

Dover, N. H., Nov. 21.—At Stratford, yesterday, Mrs. Waldron, who had been ill for some time, called her granddaughter to the bed and cut her throat from ear to ear with a razor and then killed herself.

Graphic Photographer.

Mr. F. E. Evans yesterday received his commission as photographer for the Daily Graphic for the Territory of New Mexico. This is a very flattering compliment to Mr. Evans' skill and will also be of great benefit to New Mexico in general and Las Vegas in particular.

Mr. Evans is an artist of rare skill in obtaining beautiful scenery. When these scenes come to be spread before the public through the medium of such a paper as the New York Graphic its full benefit to this country can hardly be estimated.

Calvin Fisk yesterday sold to Hopper Bros. six lots in Suttin's addition for six hundred dollars. The latter will at once construct six tenement houses thereon and thus increase the capacity of Las Vegas for people.

Mr. E. W. Sebbens is enlarging his new building on Sixth street. It is now seventy feet deep and will make a very handsome and convenient business house. Mr. Sebbens is full of business and loses no opportunity to increase his business opportunities.

J. O. Robbins, the furniture dealer, has now the largest and most complete stock ever brought to New Mexico. It would do credit to any city. He buys at the lowest prices and can consequently sell at reasonable figures. He has everything in the furniture line and it will pay anyone to examine his stock before purchasing.

Notice to Delinquents.

Those parties who have failed to pay their taxes are hereby warned that, unless the same are paid by the first day of January, 1882 their names as delinquents will be handed to the attorney general of the Territory, who will then at once proceed according to law. This is the last notice that will be given from this office, and should be heeded.
